REMARKS

Marisol Cortes is considered to be a vulnerable adult due to her medical conditions, including autism and epilepsy, which leave her with a full physical and mental disability. She is non-verbal, but English is spoken around her. Cortes wears eyeglasses and should wear a helmet, due to her epilepsy. Her family has ties to Idaho, Tennessee, Oklahoma, and Washington State.

DETAILS

The FBI's Seattle Field Office is asking for the public's assistance in their search for Marisol Cortes, a vulnerable adult. She is considered endangered because law enforcement officials believe she is currently being deprived of her required daily medications; a deprivation that reportedly may lead to grave harm or death.

In early November of 2021, Marisol Cortes was transported by an elderly family member from Battle Ground, Washington, to an unknown location after it was learned other family members were petitioning the court to gain custody of her. Family members initiated the court process after they began to believe that the individual caring for Marisol was unable and unwilling to appropriately care for her. The Court agreed with the petition and subsequently appointed a new legal guardian for Marisol. The Clark County Superior Court also issued a Vulnerable Adult Protection Order against the individual who may have taken Marisol from her family and continues to obscure Marisol's location from law enforcement and family members.

If you have any information concerning the location of this individual, please call the FBI's Seattle Field Office at (206) 622-0460. You may also contact your local FBI office, the nearest American Embassy or Consulate, or you can submit a tip online at tips.fbi.gov.
